

St Paul's Church
St Paul's Square, Birmingham B3 1QZ

Lunchtime Concert
by Cantica Wendalina

Friday 25th July 2008; 12.00 noon
Admission Free - Retiring Collection

Conductor: Stefan Klemm
Organist: David Saint

Cantate Domino	Hans Leo Hassler (1564-1612)
Missa Pange Lingua (Kyrie, Gloria)	Josquin Déprez (1440-1521)
O vos omnes	Thomaso Ludovico da Vittoria (1548-1611)
Organ Solo
Lobet den Herrn alle Heiden (BWV 230)	Johann Sebastian Bach (1685-1750)
Locus iste Christus factus est	Anton Bruckner (1824-1896)
Organ Solo
O Sacrum Convivium	Olivier Messiaen (1908-1992)
Ave Maria	Timo Leskelä (*1947)
Cantemus	Ilze Arne (*1953)

Read more about St Paul's Church and see details of future concerts by visiting www.saintpaulbrum.org

German vocal ensemble Cantica Wendalina was formed in 2001 by their conductor, Stefan Klemm. They specialize in performing ancient music and church music and have performed in many venues including St Jakob's Cathedral Innsbruck and in Koblenz, Bad Kreuznach, Boppard, Völklingen, Brandenburg and Bavaria. They sing regularly during the church services in St Wendel's Basilica, Germany. This concert is part of their week-long visit to the UK.

Professor David Saint was born in Jarrow in the north east of England in 1954, and read music at Hull and Liverpool Universities. He studied the organ with Alan Spedding and Dame Gillian Weir. He gained his Fellowship of the Royal College of Organists at the age of 20, winning the Turpin Prize for Performance. He is an active member of the Royal College of Organists as Council Member, Trustee and Executive Member. He is a Professor and Associate Dean (Academic) and Head of the Organ and Harpsichord Department at Birmingham Conservatoire. David is also Organist and Director of Music at Saint Chad's Metropolitan Cathedral in Birmingham. www.davidsaint.org