The Anthem: O how amiable -

Ralph Vaughan-Williams

'O how amiable are thy dwellings: thou Lord of hosts! My soul hath a desire and longing to enter into the courts of the Lord: My heart and my flesh rejoice in the living God. Yea, the sparrow hath found her an house, and the swallow a nest where she may lay her young: even thy altars, O Lord of hosts, my King and my God. Blessed are they that dwell in thy house: They will be always praising thee. The glorious majesty of the Lord our God be upon us: prosper thou the work of our hands upon us. O prosper thou our handywork. O God our help in ages past, our hope for years to come, our shelter from the stormy blast, and our eternal home.'

Today's Organ Voluntary:

Toccata in C – Franz Schmidt
