Acts 11.1-18
Peter explains to the Christians in Judea how the Gentiles have come to be baptised as believers. Peter argues that as God has baptised them with the Holy Spirit, then they cannot be denied the baptism of water.

Revelation 21.1-6
God's revelation to John gives us sublime visions of the Heavenly Jerusalem, where God will dwell among his people and all mourning and crying and pain will come to an end.

John 13.31-35
Judas the betrayer has just left the Passover table, and Jesus faces his imminent death. He prepares the disciples for his absence by entrusting them with a New Commandment – to love one another as he has loved them.

Hymns: 490, 458, 426, 138

Psalm: 148 1-6

Collect:
Almighty God,
who through thine only-begotten Son Jesus Christ hast overcome death and opened unto us the gate of everlasting life:
we humbly beseech thee that,
as by thy grace preceding us
thou dost put into our minds good desires,
so by thy continual help
we may bring the same to good effect;
through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord,
who liveth and reigneth with thee,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Anthem: The day draws on with golden light –
Edward C. Bairstow
'The day draws on with golden light, glad songs go echoing through the height, the broad earth lifts an answering cheer, the deep makes moan with wailing fear. For lo He comes, the mighty King, to take from death his pow'r and sting, to trample down his gloomy reign and break the weary pris'ner's chain. Maker of all, to thee we pray, fulfil in us thy joy today. When death assails, grant Lord that we may share thy Paschal victory. Amen.'
